

July 2017

Welcome to the monthly newsletter for the Vancouver Art Gallery's Family Programs. Every Sunday the Gallery offers unique activities geared towards 5 to 12 year-old visitors and their families.

---

Every Sunday, 12 - 4pm

Grown-ups and children can explore the galleries with our team of curious, whimsical, funny and informed Art Agents. Every Saturday agents engage in the exhibitions with new activities and conversations related to the works on display.

All activities are free with regular admission.

Throughout July we will be exploring Pictures From Here in the Second Floor galleries.

Available Every Sunday, 12 - 4pm upon request.

Art Tracks are child-oriented exhibition tours offering new and interdisciplinary ways of looking at and thinking about art. Free with regular admission.

Every Sunday, 12 - 4pm

The Making Place offers all kinds of exploration based, hands-on making activities that are inspired by the work in the exhibitions. Drop in any time between 12-4pm.

Upcoming Making Places:

July 2 - Blurring Photography and Painting

Inspired by the work of Evan Lee, manipulate the ink of a photo of Vancouver to make it a unique work of art.

July 9 - Narrative Photo Montage

Collage and layer photographs mixed with hand writing to tell the story of a place like Henri Robideau does.

July 16 - Intersecting Painting and Photography

Ian Wallace combines painting and photography. Use watercolour paint and images of Vancouver's down town to cut, rearrange and create your own story about what happens in this city.

July 23 - Photos and Light

Explore the many ways artists use light in photography. Use acetate to create a unique work of art that can be illuminated by light.

July 29 & 30 - Family FUSE!
