

A Lecture by Jacques Herzog, Herzog & de Meuron

Supported by:

The Timothy C. Kerr Family Foundation

Wednesday May 6, 2015, 7:30pm
Orpheum Theatre, 601 Smithe Street

Award winning architect Jacques Herzog will give a lecture at the Orpheum Theatre in the context of the current exhibition at the Vancouver Art Gallery Material Future: The Architecture of Herzog & de Meuron and the Vancouver Art Gallery. Learn about the firm's vision of how architecture can shape cities and cultural life. The presentation will be followed by an open Q&A with the public.

Jacques Herzog established Herzog & de Meuron with Pierre de Meuron in Basel in 1978. He studied architecture at the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich (ETHZ) from 1970 to 1975 with Aldo Rossi and Dolf Schnebli. He was a visiting tutor at Cornell University, USA in 1983. With Pierre de Meuron, he is visiting professor at Harvard University, USA (1989 and since 1994), professor at ETH Zürich since 1999, and co-founder of ETH Studio Basel - Contemporary City Institute since 2002. In 2001, he was awarded the Pritzker Architecture Prize together with Pierre de Meuron.

Tickets:

$10 general admission,
$7 for Gallery Members and students with valid ID

Tickets now on sale at vanartgallery.bc.ca/lecture

The architectural firm Herzog & de Meuron has been commissioned as the design architects for the future Vancouver Art Gallery, in collaboration with Perkins+Will as the local executive architects.

Material Future

The Architecture of Herzog & de Meuron
and the Vancouver
Art Gallery

Now On View

Exclusive free access on Thursday, April 23 and 30,
5pm–9pm

